Secretaries Lamar and Manning did not seem much pleased with my letter regarding the vexed question of the "towel-washing and the Chinese." The bee must have stung somebody, for one John W. Morgan comes out in a card in The NATIONAL REPUBLICAN and agrees with me in everything I said, except that Mr. Lamar and Mr. Manning were innocent gentlemen." Fersons naturally inquired after roading his card, "What has Mr. Morgan to do with it?" What prompts him like a true knight of the tub and the sadiron to fly to the detense of those secretaries? We find on inquiry that Mr. John W. Morgan possesses the contract for washing these towels, and curiosity led me to investigate as to how he got it. Some time ago, unider Mr. Manning's economic plan, the washing was awarded to Mrs. Sarah Zahn, a German woman. Upon investigation I learned thom one of the chief clerks that the woman had to surrender the contract on account of the intemperance of her hisband. Not satisfed with this statement, I sought Capt. Van Rensalaer, who informed me that after obtaining the contract she employed a number of colored women to do the washing, when a terrific thunder storm came and the vivid lichtning so alarmed them that they ran away. Thus it seems that the very elements grow snerry official informed me that they ran away. Thus it seems that the very elements grow snerry at the spectacle of cheap labor and share the indignation expressed by the industrial element of the land. The woman, in truth, surrendered the contract because it did not pay her, and she could get no one to work for her at the wages she could afford to pay. A treasury official informed me that the department dealt only with the contractor, and did not know or care where the washing was done, whether in a Chinese laundry or the ponition-that pinde no difference to the department dealt only with the contractor, and did not know or care where the washing the contract when her been the pay and the number of poor women thrown retaries Lamarand Manning did not seem leave, and I call upon the clearymen of this city and the entire country to surport me in my demand.

The Chinese as a class are naturally obnestions to use a people. They are oup seed to us in every relation of life. They neither love our country, our institutions, nor our 1904. They have surrounded their country for ages with an immense wall to keep out the outside barbarians, as they term the rest of mankins. They come to our shores huddled like sheep together, live like hogs in fifth and corruption, exist on rice and water, and are thus enabled to work for lower wages, and thereby deprive the inbor element of this country of that employment which rightfully belongs to them. Heades all this, they robe every commonity in which they live by heardling the money they make and sending the same back to China. The Chinese profit no civilized country, and stand as a curse upon the shores of ours.

"A stitch in time saves nine" is an old adage, and now is the poper time to eradicate these fifthy people fro floor midst. Our people can do this without exchanging ablow. Let every man and women in our midst refuse to parrourse these laundries and they will close. This is the quickest, the best, and the most effective way to dispose of them. The Chinama can find no other employment in our cities—certainly none in the villages or rimat districts. Let organizations be formed of the men and women, young and old, to grant no patronize to these laundries or their supporters, and the red currain of the Chinese industry will fade away forever from our cities.

If the few Chinese now here are smitchent to cause so much agitation of the public mind and so much apprehension to our temale industrians, what will the outcome be unless the labor element of the country combine to put a stop to their employment in our midst.

The CHINESE IN SAN FRANCECO.

was shifted to shot the sponsor for the great economy achieved in letting out the towel washing at 15 cents per hundred towels. Who could afford to do this work but a Chinamana? Noone. I make nothing personally by this expose of Democratic economy, or departmental parsimony. I consider it simply disgraceful on the part of the officers of the department to accept such a bid, thereby robbing the widows and children of bread. What caused the washing to be taken away from them? Who proposed this wonderful scheme to save money to the treasury?

If the government is to be run in the interest of economy the next move in order would be to let out the minoroffices, such as messengers, watchmen, and laborers by contract, and then John Chinaman could come in aud underbid the rest of mankind. The Chinaman, under the patronage of our economical government, can afford to take the bread from the months of our wase-people. They can exist ou mice, rats, and leprosy, and can afford to work for less than other people.

Civil service protects the balance already planted firmly on government pay. Frivate rascality and immorality are not deemed sufficient reasons for discharge. In fact, a statued reputation seems to make no difference with the Secretary of the Interior. For, Mr. President, are you aware that within the past four weeks a person who was formerly in the Missispip penitentiary has been reinstanced in the treasury; by the request and through the influence of it. Q. C. Lamar?

I called a day or two ago at the Interior Department to mention the face of the immorality of one of the circular and the influence of its employed therein, and also that the mistress supported by this circk was indebted to a poor wage woman and refused to pay her. I was very emphatically told by Mr. Jonas, of Mississippi, acting secretary pro tempore, that the Interior Department was not seen and his age at 7 yeers, and sold he was smoking a cigarette which he for the payment of their just debts. They had nothed the incircular and the payment of th practice of using optium even the little ones wear the looks of premature old agv. Optium is a schictive drug. The habit grows upon the use. wear the looks of premature old age. Optum is a seducitive drug. The habit grows upon the use. They dream away the hours like indolent Turks. The use of the drug is spreading in our country.

In a conversation with Mr. Milburn, the druggist of thirty years' experience in this city, he informed me that the sale of oppum is on the increase of 50 percent; that women buy more, but in smaller quantilies than men. When once the habit of using it has been contracted it is hard to stop it. Its deletarious effects are soon noticed in every user. The mother gives it to her children under the name of soothing strup, which is composed of the drug. It soothes the infant to sleep, and gives the mother rest also for a brief season, but plants in the system of the child a desire for optum that after years fall to wips out. The use leads to drunkenness, shame, and death; and comes to us from China—as the production of the Mongolian empire—and like the Chinese laundries proves a curse to the soil upon which we live.

Independent of the curse of cheap labor and opium, which follow Chinese emigration, they bring along with them the most loathsome, incurable disease known to the materia medica—the leproxy. Here is a true picture of Chinatown. Read for yourself:

"San Francisco, Sept. 13.—A horrible discovery was made in Chinatown to-day. Information was given the city coroner that a frightful stench was being emitted from a cellar on Pacific street. He went to the cellar and found the floor covered with flesh in the last stage of decomposition. In an inner room the coroner found a number of Chinase engaged in bening down the remains of other bodies, while several other Chinamen were engaged in sempling the boiled bones and packing them in boxes for shipment to China. It is estimated that the cellar contained over 200 dead bodies, while have been taken secretly from various cometeries throughout the state. As an instance of Chinase in genuity, it is stated that those in charge of these operations, fearing that the stench from the bo

The laundry was the principal arone here, outside of the department, where only a chosen fow can once. Shall the laundry be closed also, usurped by the heathen Chines at the Instance of the government. Shall the laundry has chosen fow can once, shall the laundry be closed also, usurped by the heathen Chines at the Instance of the government? Shall this avenue be closed to our female industrians? What other noise road or means of livelibood can the pastors of the 190 churches of Washington point out?

I pause for a reply, Woman has but two roads to travel—one of honest employment, the other of shame and rim? Can you point out, the other of shame and rim? Can you point out, the other of shame and rim? Can you point out, the other of shame and rim? Can you point out, the other of shame and rim? Can you point out, the other of shame and rim? CHARLOTTE SMITH SAYS SO AND TELLS

Letter to the President, and Some Remarks to the Clergy of the Country on the Necessity for Action to Save the Wemen from Degradation and

In commencing this letter I wight to say that in my open letter to Mr. Cleveland I omitted to give the details of his conversation with me when I called at the white house to see him at his own invitation. I did not go in search of office for myself or any one clse, which makes it one of the most remarkable instances of the kind on record. I called in behalf of the female industrians of the country, who had been ignored and badly ,treated by his subordinates.

The President received me kindly and remarked to use as to whether I considered if "politic on my part in making such an attack on the present meumicant or head of the lates. bureau." I replied saying "Mr. President, it may not have been pointle, but I stated facts nevertheless and nothing but facts, and if it was not notified to tell the truth I did not wish to have anything to do with politics." I do not regret my attack on the head of the labor bureau, and indeed, feel rather flattered that so many prominent journals of the land indersed me for so doing. I believe in sincerily, not in subterfuges. Is it possible that the truth cannot be told in high places, except to the injury of your political party?
